Jack Hernandez Lecture Tonight

Sept. 29, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

I wanted to take a minute to remind you about the Jack Hernandez Lecture tonight.

The event will be held at the Levan Center of Bakersfield College and this year's inaugural lecture will be delivered by Dr. Nick Strobel, recipient of the district-wide Jack Hernandez Phronesis Award.

The in-person sites at all three campuses are at capacity and we've had multiple inquiries about where to watch the event online. For those in-person, the dinner will be at 5:00pm with the livestream beginning at 5:30pm. You can watch the event live here.

The future remains bright at KCCD!

With much warmth and collegiality.
